March 2017 NEWSLETTER

From the Pastor

We enter a season of Forty Days that lead us through a cloud of uncertainty. We examine ourselves in light of God's majesty, God's glory, God's power, and God's knowledge.

"what are human beings that you are mindful of them, Mortals that you care for them?" Psalm 8:4

The other day I saw that scientists have found seven "earthlike" planets in a far away star system. It opens up questions for us material people who are so quick to focus on ourselves, yet still declare our God to be the God of the universe.

Question one again "who are we...?" but more importantly it opens up a question posed to Jesus "who is my neighbor?"

God's universe is not our universe...we may search the distance but God has given us a world (a universe) to live in right here. Our minds can very easily soar, and those soaring minds have lead to many discoveries...yet, still often times we lose sight of our neighbor.

They hunger. They thirst. They go away naked. In that contemplation God calls us over the expanse of the universe and bids us see...not so much the stars and planets, the galaxies and the star systems (I say this not as an affront to scientific pursuit) but to see those who cross "our orbit".

As we wander the path of Lent let us think on the above verse from Psalm 8. God is mindful of us so that we declare his love to those that indeed cross our paths. I pray you are mindful. God loves you and gives you purpose, a pathway, to shine God's love in Christ to those you encounter.

Amen

Pastor David.

Church Council Highlights

Regular Council Meeting Thursday, February 9 6:00pm

Council liaisons for 2017 are:

Jody Biegert - Worship and Music

Anna Prockish - Evangelism

Phil Sedo - Property

Shellee Callahan - Stewardship, Finance

Mary Mertz - Memorial, Mutual Ministry

Mary Shaffer - Learning and Education

Wayne Keeler - Personnel

Kyle Tonniges - no assignment

Lana Jordan - as President, she serves on Personnel

Liaisons are to bring a list of committee members to next meeting.

It is recommended they do not serve as chairpersons. They are not required to do committee work or projects unless they choose to do so.

It is requested by Pastor that if committees have business, they all meet at 5:30 p.m. on the first Tuesday of the month. This will enable Pastor to be available and enable committees to communicate and plan more efficiently.

THIS BEGINS ON MARCH 7.

Property Committee will be asked to contact a volunteer Certified Energy Auditor to evaluate our facility and possible steps/cost savings.

Anna's idea for raising Reformation 500 funds for Synod request was referred to Outreach.

Council meetings will continue to be the second Thursday each month at 6:00 p.m. Exception will be meeting moved to April 20 because of Maundy Thursday.

Council Meeting Minutes are available to read on the Council Bulletin Board and in the office.

Council Meetings are the 2nd Thursday of the month

Worship Notes

We'll be using Setting 3 in the cranberry hymnal, Evangelical Lutheran Worship, during the Lent and Easter seasons. This is a familiar setting from the green hymnal. Be ready for a new psalm tone!

Joyous Light (by Ray Makeever) will be our liturgy for the 6:15 Wednesday night services during Lent. We're blessed to have several worship leaders helping us out with the music.

Please welcome Miriam Strasen as our substitute organist. She will be playing organ at least once a month (twice during April). We appreciate her wonderful music skills!

You may notice more copies of the purple hymnal Worship & Praise in the pews. We had requests to sing more of those songs on Sunday mornings, so we now have enough copies for everyone.

During Lent, we'll learn a new hymn "Restore in Us, O God" (ELW 328). We'll also sing some favorites during Lent: Amazing Grace, A Mighty Fortress, Lift High the Cross, and Rock of Ages, to name a few.

Lent begins March 1

Ash Wednesday

7-9:30am

2-3pm

Indoor Service
7pm

Give it up for Lent!

The Outreach Team has selected Camp Tomah Shinga, our Central States outdoor camp and retreat center located south of Junction City, as the recipient for the Give It Up For Lent offering.

A "noise offering" will be given at both services each Sunday from March 5 to April 9. You may choose to use the yellow pew envelopes and mark it "Camp Offering" or something similar. The goal is $1,000.00.

Many projects have been delayed for several years and the staff are working hard to make the camp a fun, appealing, and Christ-filled place.

Visit the camp website www.tomahshinga.com for more information.

Wednesday Night Ministry

Have a busy week?

We are open late on Wednesday and you can leave the cooking to us.

Wednesday night at Redeemer is a rewarding and relaxing time for everyone. Come and join us for all or part of the evening activities. Childcare is provided free of charge starting at 6:00.

5:30 - Weekly Meal

The evening begins with a light Supper, prepared and served by Redeemer volunteers, in the fellowship hall. The meal is free, but donations are accepted. Church Volunteers will provide soup during Lent

6:00 - Godly Play for children age 3 through 3rd grade

What is Godly Play? A child-honoring way of entering into and experiencing the biblical story. We use manipulative story characters and imagination to experience the biblical story through narrative story, parables, liturgical actions and silence. Children are not told what to believe but are exposed to the story experience. Through this open-ended approach we hear the deepest invitation to come play with God.

6:15 - Worship—An informal Communion worship service is held every week. During Lent Pastor David will focus his message on the minor prophets.

Caring for Creation

Restoring Creation and Sacrifice By Mary Mertz

During Lent we often think more deeply about our Christian value of sacrifice. Lutherans Restoring Creation (<http://www.lutheransrestoringcreation.org>) relates this value to our care for the earth and our fellow creatures.

The word sacrifice is Latin; it means “sacred deed.” Christ performed a sacred deed for us: he emptied himself, gave himself completely for us. We might feel called—during Lent or ongoing—to give up our comfort or convenience for the sake of plants, animals, or people in a country more directly threatened by climate change.

During Lent, let’s each choose one change we can make in our lives that will help restore creation. Here are some suggestions:

Recycle

Take reusable bags when I go shopping
Change my thermostat at home to save energy (hey, this saves money, too!)
Eat locally grown foods
Support local businesses
Reuse Ziploc bags (wash them out, let them dry)
Carpool—or take the bus
Commute by bicycle

Here’s a quote from philosopher Holmes Rolston III: *

“An exciting difference between humans and nonhumans is that, while animals and plants can defend only their own lives and those of their offspring, humans can defend life with vision of greater scope. They can sacrifice themselves for the good of humans yet unborn, or on the other side of the globe, the entire human community. Humans can also care for the biotic communities with which they share this planet; they can care for their biosphere.

Humans can be genuine altruists; this begins when they recognize the claims of other humans—or even nonhumans—whether or not such claims are compatible with their own self-interest.

Environmental ethics is the most altruistic form of ethics. It really loves others. This ultimate altruism is, or ought to be, the human genius.”

As Christians, inspired by Christ’s sacred deed, we can be in the forefront of sacrificing for others.

* “Kenosis and Nature” [in The Work of Love; Creation as Kenosis, edited by John Polkinghorne.] [Kenosis is Greek for “emptying out.”]

FYI

First Communion Classes

As we enter into the Lenten season we are also looking towards Holy Week. Traditionally here at Redeemer we have celebrated a Seder Meal to coincide with Easter but more importantly to understand, as best we can, the Passover celebration enjoyed and remembered by our Jewish sisters and brothers, as well as the disciples and Jesus himself.

In conjunction with this we also offer first communion education. Pastor David and the Education Committee are committed to working with parents and their children in helping our young people learn more about this wonderful sacrament.

There is no age limit to this study. We encourage all parents who feel their child is ready to sit down with Pastor David and go over the basics of understanding the phrase "For you!" and how through God's love Jesus is given for our salvation, to sign them up.

We will be holding these sessions between church services on March 12, 19, and 26. We will also be willing to discuss a time we can meet with any Wednesday night attendees as well. If you would as parents like to have a Small Catechism to look at what we as Lutherans believe about the Eucharist before you sign your child up, please contact the office.

Free Services

Once again the Tammy Walker Cancer Center is offering free smoking cessation classes. I only have a few spaces left and would love to fill them. This is for people who are smokers or who use smokeless tobacco and would like to quit.

AND We are offering a survivorship program which is most appropriate for individuals who have completed their cancer treatment or are nearly finished who would like to tune in over the phone to hear these interesting topics over lunch. Participants will be able to ask questions. These are really great. The beauty of this is they can call in from their cell phones or from home.

ALSO Beginning March 1st there will be a free colorectal screening for people ages 50 to 79. The kits can be picked up at most local pharmacies as well as in Lindsborg, the Tammy Walker Cancer Center and the Senior Center.

2017 Flower Chart

The new flower chart is on the bulleting board in the fellowship hall. If you are interested in providing flowers for our worship services on a special date, please write your name on the chart next to that date.

Providing flowers for worship is a great way to honor a special person or event. After worship you can take the flowers home or share them with a friend.

Please make sure you use a dry erase marker on the chart and not a "sharpie". We like to reuse the chart each year.

Romans 5:12-19

Matthew 4:1-11

¹Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. ²He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. ³The tempter came and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread." ⁴But he answered, "It is written,

'One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.'

⁵Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, ⁶saying to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written,

'He will command his angels concerning you,' and 'On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.'

⁷Jesus said to him, "Again it is written, 'Do not put the Lord your God to the test.'"

⁸Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; ⁹and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me." ¹⁰Jesus said to him, "Away with you, Satan! for it is written,

'Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.'

¹¹Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him

¹Now there was a Pharisee named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. ²He came to Jesus by night and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God; for no one can do these signs that you do apart from the presence of God." ³Jesus answered him, "Very truly, I tell you, no one can see the kingdom of God without being born from above." ⁴Nicodemus said to him, "How can anyone be born after having grown old? Can one enter a second time into the mother's womb and be born?" ⁵Jesus answered,

"Very truly, I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. ⁶What is born of the flesh is flesh, and what is born of the Spirit is spirit. ⁷Do not be astonished that I said to you, 'You must be born from above.' ⁸The wind blows where it chooses, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from or where it goes. So it is with everyone who is born of the Spirit." ⁹Nicodemus said to him, "How can these things be?" ¹⁰Jesus answered him, "Are you a teacher of Israel, and yet you do not understand these things?"

¹¹"Very truly, I tell you, we speak of what we know and testify to what we have seen; yet you do not receive our testimony. ¹²If I have told you about earthly things and you do not believe, how can you believe if I tell you about heavenly things? ¹³No one has ascended into heaven except the one who descended from heaven, the Son of Man. ¹⁴And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up, ¹⁵that whoever believes in him may have eternal life.

¹⁶"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not perish but may have eternal life.

¹⁷"Indeed, God did not send the Son into the world to condemn the world, but in order that the world might be saved through him."

Exodus 17:1-7

Psalm 95

Romans 5:1-11

John 4:5-42

⁵[Jesus] came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. ⁶Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

⁷A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink." ⁸(His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) ⁹The Samaritan woman said to him, "How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?" (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) ¹⁰Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water." ¹¹The woman said to him, "Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? ¹²Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?" ¹³Jesus said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, ¹⁴but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.”¹⁵ The woman said to him, “Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.”

¹⁶Jesus said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come back.”¹⁷ The woman answered him, “I have no husband.” Jesus said to her, “You are right in saying, ‘I have no husband’; ¹⁸for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!”¹⁹ The woman said to him, “Sir, I see that you are a prophet.”²⁰ Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.”²¹ Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem.”²² You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews.”²³ But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him.”²⁴ God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”²⁵ The woman said to him, “I know that Messiah is coming” (who is called Christ). “When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.”²⁶ Jesus said to her, “I am he, the one who is speaking to you.”

²⁷Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, “What do you want?” or, “Why are you speaking with her?”²⁸ Then the woman left her water jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, ²⁹“Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?”³⁰ They left the city and were on their way to him.

³¹Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, “Rabbi, eat something.”³² But he said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.”³³ So the disciples said to one another, “Surely no one has brought him something to eat?”³⁴ Jesus said to them, “My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work.”³⁵ Do you not say, ‘Four months more, then comes the harvest’? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting.”³⁶ The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together.”³⁷ For here the saying holds true, ‘One sows and another reaps.’³⁸ I sent you to reap that for which you did not labor. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

³⁹Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman’s testimony, “He told me everything I have ever done.”⁴⁰ So when the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to stay with them; and he stayed there two days.⁴¹ And many more believed because of his word.”⁴² They said to the woman, “It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this is truly the Savior of the world.”

March 26, 4th Sunday in Lent

1 Samuel 16:1-13

Psalms 23

Ephesians 5:8-14

John 9:1-41

¹As [Jesus] walked along, he saw a man blind from birth. ²His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” ³Jesus answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned; he was born blind so that God’s works might be revealed in him.”⁴ We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming when no one can work.”⁵ As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”⁶ When he had said this, he spat on the ground and made mud with the saliva and spread the mud on the man’s eyes, ⁷saying to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). Then he went and washed and came back able to see.”⁸ The neighbors and those who had seen him before as a beggar began to ask, “Is this not the man who used to sit and beg?”⁹ Some were saying, “It is he.” Others were saying, “No, but it is someone like him.” He kept saying, “I am the man.”¹⁰ But they kept asking him, “Then how were your eyes opened?”¹¹ He answered, “The man called Jesus made mud, spread it on my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to Siloam and wash.’ Then I went and washed and received my sight.”¹² They said to him, “Where is he?” He said, “I do not know.”

¹³They brought to the Pharisees the man who had formerly been blind. ¹⁴Now it was a sabbath day when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.”¹⁵ Then the Pharisees also began to ask him how he had received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes. Then I washed, and now I see.”¹⁶ Some of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, for he does not observe the sabbath.” But others said, “How can a man who is a sinner perform such signs?” And they were divided.”¹⁷ So they said again to the blind man, “What do you say about him? It was your eyes he opened.” He said, “He is a prophet.”

¹⁸The Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had received his sight until they called the parents of the man who had received his sight ¹⁹and asked them, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?" ²⁰His parents answered, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; ²¹but we do not know how it is that now he sees, nor do we know who opened his eyes. Ask him; he is of age. He will speak for himself." ²²His parents said this because they were afraid of the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that anyone who confessed Jesus to be the Messiah would be put out of the synagogue. ²³Therefore his parents said, "He is of age; ask him."

²⁴So for the second time they called the man who had been blind, and they said to him, "Give glory to God! We know that this man is a sinner." ²⁵He answered, "I do not know whether he is a sinner. One thing I do know, that though I was blind, now I see." ²⁶They said to him, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" ²⁷He answered them, "I have told you already, and you would not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?" ²⁸Then they reviled him, saying, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. ²⁹We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he comes from." ³⁰The man answered, "Here is an astonishing thing! You do not know where he comes from, and yet he opened my eyes. ³¹We know that God does not listen to sinners, but he does listen to one who worships him and obeys his will. ³²Never since the world began has it been heard that anyone opened the eyes of a person born blind. ³³If this man were not from God, he could do nothing." ³⁴They answered him, "You were born entirely in sins, and are you trying to teach us?" And they drove him out.

³⁵Jesus heard that they had driven him out, and when he found him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?" ³⁶He answered, "And who is he, sir? Tell me, so that I may believe in him." ³⁷Jesus said to him, "You have seen him, and the one speaking with you is he." ³⁸He said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped him. ³⁹Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment so that those who do not see may see, and those who do see may become blind." ⁴⁰Some of the Pharisees near him heard this and said to him, "Surely we are not blind, are we?" ⁴¹Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would not have sin. But now that you say, 'We see,' your sin remains."
